The Space Telescope Science Institute’s Youth for Astronomy & Engineering Program (YAE) invites middle and high school students to join our Family Night at the Institute.

This summer, Space Telescope Science Institute’s Youth for Astronomy and Engineering Program (YAE), in the Office of Communications and Public Outreach, will be hosting two “Family Night at the Institute” sessions. Please join us for one and engage in an interactive astronomical presentation for the entire family, followed by a chance to take part in night star observations through the Morris W. Offit Telescope (weather permitting). Light refreshments will be served.

Friday, July 18, 2014
Friday, July 25, 2014
6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

The program is FREE to attend; however, registration is required to guarantee your seat.
