

The obsum task in the STSDAS calhrs package can be used to identify GHR spectra which were potentially corrupted by the first Doppler compensation problem. This task identifies periods when the Doppler compensation should have been