Cover page and artwork designed by John Godfrey and David Paradise (STScI) using an image of a WFPC flat field as described by Biretta et al. on page 37. The donuts at bottom right are caused by filter pinholes. These donuts are shadows of the Cassegrain secondaries and their three support posts. Also evident across this image are low-level residual streaks; a signature feature of WFPC Earth calibration flats.