

STScI Web Site Redesign

- The STScI web site has not been redesigned for a long time
- Additional content has been added over time, making navigation difficult
- An internal committee as been formed to recommend changes in structure, content and lay-out
- We are seeking input from various web site user groups (general public, telescope users, astronomers, students, STScI staff, etc.)

- We request your feedback:
- What do you use www.stsci.edu for?
- Which information would you like to find at www.stsci.edu?
- Which information should there be for the STScI community?
- Can you briefly summarize your likes and dislikes of the current content and structure of www.stsci.edu?
- Please send replies to Danny Golombek (golombek@stsci.edu)
