

Figure 3

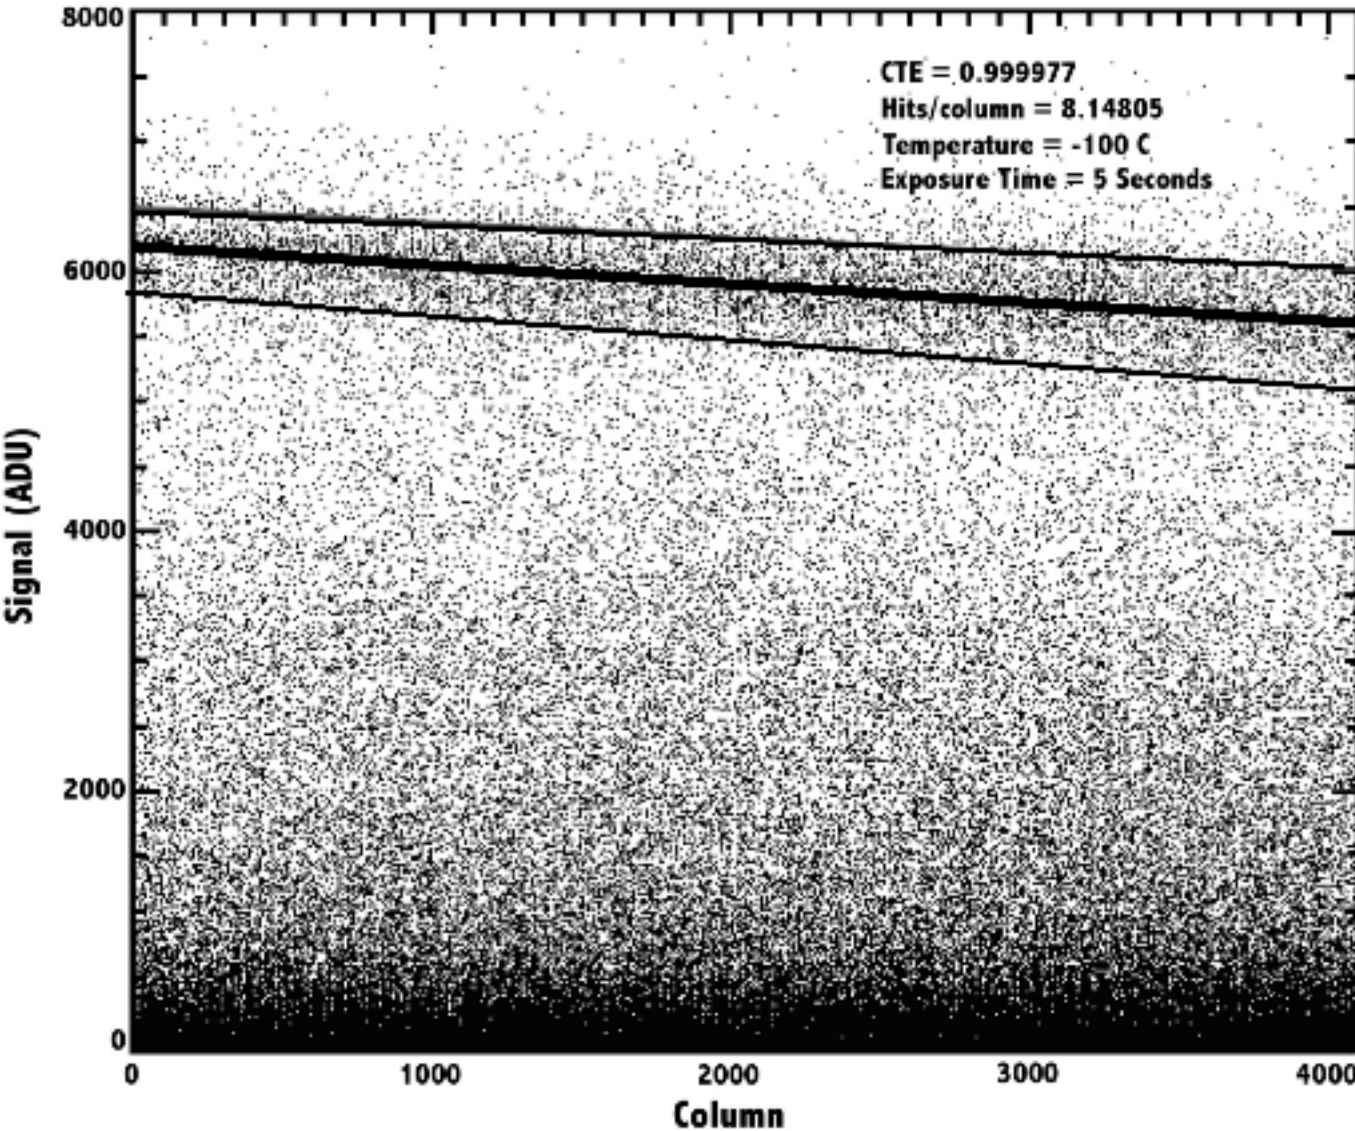

Figure 3. An example of a stacking plot of an  $^{55}\text{Fe}$  image. The upper and lower lines denote the upper and lower bounds of K-beta our area of interest (the K-alpha line) and the middle line is the best fit to the area.